PETER TASHKOFF

ACT
Te Tai Tokerau

1. Hekia – because she's my whanaunga.
2. Radicalism
3. 'We Will Rock You' – self evident but also it has a great beat and I loved it in A Knight's Tale.
4. Owen Glenn - because he doesn't take crap from politicians
5. I'd ban toxic politics but then Jim Anderton would be left speechless.

OLIVER WOODS

NIKKI KAYE

National Party, Auckland Central

1. I would take John Carter because he is a really great bloke, has experience in civil defence so could help sort it out and would make me laugh when things were tough.
2. Environmentalism, capitalism, compassionism, sportism, wineism
3. I have gone off Coldplay a bit so I wouldn't pick just one but I like Snow Patrol 'Open your Eyes' and Scorpion "Wind of Change" - A bit cheesy but love those two songs.
4. There are many great kiwis but if I had to choose between the two I would pick Owen Glenn because of his suggestion to hold international volley ball competitions if he became consul to Monaco - that's gutsy.
5. If I was Jim Anderton I would need a completely new wardrobe and I would ban myself from wearing short skirts.
